

LITTLE TERROR

小恐怖

Little Terror is a young boy covered from head to toe in blood and scars, he was born into the "Terror Clan", an ancient family which specialises in creating natural calamities and man-made disasters. They absolutely forbid even a drop of goodness to exist, not even a morsel or a trace.

One night when he's ordered to burn and destroy a forest, he encounters a young wolf with gleaming eyes and soft grey fur. He trusts the wolf completely and it gradually begins to melt his cold heart. To protect his beloved wolf from becoming nothing more than a pile of grey ashes, Little Terror follows the guidance of the forest god and begins searching for the world's last remaining seed, which is their only hope if they want to stop the Terror Clan....

Text by Hou Wei-Ling 侯維玲

Hou Wei-Ling was born in Tainan and graduated from the German department of Tamkang University. She has won the Chiu Ko Children's Literature Award and the Hsin Yi Picture Book Award, as well as many important national children's book prizes.

Illustrated by Aiden Chuo 吉樂藍儂

Aiden Chuo was born in 1980, in a small, tropical town in the south of Taiwan. He believes that a good book isn't just one that the reader can understand and appreciate, but to achieve true success you need to make the reader cry, which is what he's always striving for. In 2004, he was a featured illustrator at the Bologna Children's Book Fair.

Category: Middle Grade

Publisher: Commonwealth Education

Date: 11/2017

Rights contact:

booksfromtaiwan.rights@gmail.com

Pages: 144

Rights sold: Thai (Mangmoom)